Mention.

"Sec. 5. That the Brightwood Railway Company, the Rock Creek Railway Company and the Georgetown and Tenleytown Railroad Company be, and they are hereby, respectively, authorized and required to sell four coupon tickets for 25 cents, good for one continuous ride in the District of Columbia over the lines of said companies, respectively, and the lines of the Metropolitan Railroad Company, and the said suburban roads shall redeem the tickets collected by the Metropolitan Railroad Company, at the rate of 2½ cents for each coupon ticket presented by the said Metropolitan Railroad Company. Any of the aforesaid railroad companies which shall refuse to make sale of tickets or to accept tickets so sold as herein provided for shall be liable to a fine of $50 for each such violation, to be recovered in the Po-lice Court of the District of Columbia, as other fines are recovered: Provided, That the proceeding for the collection of such penalty shall be commenced within thirty days from the date of the alleged refusal. The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia shall have, and it is hereby given, authority and jurisdiction to enforce the requirements and provisions of this sec-tion in respect of the sale of tickets on the petition of either of the aforesaid railroad sale, lease or joint operation of the line of said Rock Creek Railway Company on Florida avenue and U street, or any part thereof. It is provided that the act shall

For Safe Keeping.

Charles Rich, a colored barber who lives in Georgetown, was off duty yesterday and he drank so much liquor that he could not find his way home. When he went in the eighth precinct station and asked to be shown his way home he was locked up for safe keeping. Before being put behind the bars he was searched and a loaded pistol taken from him. This necessitated the filing of a charge of concealed weapons against him and Judge Miller fined him $50 or sixty down
